VOLUME 1, NUMBER 1 | JUNE, 2009

WELCOME

Today we launch our monthly eNewsletter - Volume 1, Number 1. We trust that you will find it interesting, thought provoking, and sometimes even lighthearted. It will lean towards legal topics [after all, we are a law firm], as well as current affairs. Should I feel so moved, I also reserve the right to climb upon my soap box and rant. In the mean time, sit back, and enjoy the read. And, please take a few moments to put our e-mail address into your "allowed senders" box.

Digital Camera Raffle -- Keep A Digital Camera In Your Car

In the words of Jerry Maguire "Help me to help you." Keep a decent digital camera in your car. At some point along the way, you will be involved in an automobile accident. It is very important for you to take high quality digital images of your car, the other person's car, parts from the cars located on the street or elsewhere, skid marks, witnesses, the other person, the police, the resting places of the cars before moved, and evidence of injury. And, no, cell phone images are not good enough.

Whether we are putting together a Settlement Brochure for the responsible person's insurance company, or we are in trial projecting the images on a 10 foot screen for the jury, the better the images, the better the result.

We want to start the "Keep A Digital Camera In Your Car" snowball by giving away a high quality digital camera to one of our readers. If you or anyone you know are interested in entering the raffle, just e-mail us before June 26, 2009. On June 29, 2009, we will hold the random drawing of the lucky winner. Good luck!

Library of Congress - On Line

We all support the art, culture and pageantry of the United States. Unfortunately, it is housed a 5 hour plane ride away from us in Washington DC. This geographical and economic barrier keeping us from enjoying the fruits of our taxes can now be easily crossed by visiting the Library of Congress on line <http://www.loc.gov/index.html> . There you will find hours and hours [maybe even days and days] of free entertainment. It is unlikely that you will not find at least one topic that will appeal to you. For example:

Kids and Families: <http://www.loc.gov/families/>
Genealogy: <http://www.loc.gov/rr/genealogy/>
Science and Technology: <http://www.loc.gov/rr/scitech/>
Motion Picture and Television: <http://www.loc.gov/rr/mopic/>

There are webcasts to view. If you like music, check out Stevie Wonder Performs "Sketches of a Life" http://www.loc.gov/today/cyberlc/feature_wdesc.php?rec=4513 . Maybe you are interested in American Heroines: The Spirited Women Who Shaped Our Country http://www.loc.gov/today/cyberlc/feature_wdesc.php?rec=3680 . Maybe Earth's Water Cycle in a Changing Climate http://www.loc.gov/today/cyberlc/feature_wdesc.php?rec=4339 appeals to you. There are many webcasts -- just a click away.

These links to the Library of Congress site are active as of today.
